MONDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 17.

CATHOLIC BISHOPS.—The nominations for the new Catholic Episcopal Sees, made at the late Plenary Council, held in Baltimore, last spring, Archbishop Spading presiding, were sent to Rome for confirmation by the Sovereign Pontiff. On Thursday last the official letters announcing the confirmation were received by Archbishop Spalding. There were fourteen nominations confirmed, and the same number of new Sees created in the United States, the rapid increase of the Catholics throughout the country necessitating such action. Among those raised to the dignity of the episcopacy, is Rev. James Gibbons, formerly pastor of St. Bridget's Church, Canton, and more recently one of the secretaries to the Archbishop, who has been named to the See of North Carolina. Rev. Dr. Becker, of Richmond, Va., is confirmed as Bishop of Wilmington, Delaware, whilst Rev. Dr. O'Hara, Vicar-General of Philadelphia, is appointed Bishop of the new See of Scranton, Pa.

"SLASHING DAYS" OVER .- Old Uncle Billy, lately the servant of Dr. Walker Landram of this county, applied to a Magistrate the other day for a warrant, for the arrest of a negro who had stolen a pair of boots from Billy's son. The Magistrate told Billy he would give him the warrant, but he thought it would cost him more trouble, and expense, than the boots were worth. "Oh," said Billy, I don't 'xpect to git the boots—I only want the fellow well slashed!" "Well, Billy," said the Justice, "those days are over now—there is no more whipping." "What," said Billy, in an excited tone, "not whip a nigger for stealing. Do Congress is a fool, I'll go dere myself, and tell 'em dat niggers must be slashed when dey steals; it's de only way!" Billy is up for Congress, then, and starts with at least one plank in his platform. - Fredericksburg Herald.
